What every buyer in Baulkham Hills has been waiting for. A great designed family home in original condition, but structurally strong and sound. This home has been a rental for many years and now the vendors have finally decided to let it go.

It was built to last, with new carpets, original kitchen and bathrooms all in working order. It offers formal living areas, large entry hall, good size bedrooms. Minimal cost to renovate as it's only cosmetic not structural. Located in quiet street close to schools and public transport.
